Immigration case or is the Petitioner Foreign born? N

Hi,

Yes, Jane Doe would like representation for her upcoming hearing. A little background information: P and R were together for approximately 7 years, they have one CIC (Sally Smith dob: 1/1/2011). They currently live together in an apartment that they jointly rent in NE DC. R left the shared residence after the May 1 event that led P to file the petition- she is unsure where he is staying. Service may be an issue since his whereabouts are unknown; R typically works fulltime (address in petition). P has not heard from R since he left and he has not reported to work. Through the petition, P was awarded temporary custody of their CIC. P and the child continue to stay at their shared residence.

P reports that abuse has been present since becoming pregnant with their CIC. She is able to identify that the frequency and lethality of the abuse increases when R is under the influence (etoh, no history of receiving formal etoh treatment, P unaware of any other recreational drug use, R has a co-occurring mental health diagnosis of depression and does NOT receive treatment). P reports that the abuse started out as mainly emotional/verbal abuse and did not become physical until two years ago when R lost his job and they had to move in with R's mother in Capitol Heights, MD. P denies any concerns that R is abusive toward their CIC, however, CIC has witnessed a lot of the domestic violence. She is interested in starting her daughter in therapy to address the DV she has witnessed; P reports some behavioral changes and regressions (ie: wetting the bed, biting kids at daycare, "very clingy," etc.).

P has not filed any previous CPOs against R in DC or MD. She reports making one police report in March 2014 in MD however did not move forward with pressing charges. During this incident, R choked P- she did go to the forensic nurse examiner to document the physical injuries. Regarding the more recent incidences in the petition, P has photos of the bruising on her arm and hole in the bathroom wall.

Regarding safety: P and CIC continue to live in the shared residence. We discussed contacting Crime Victims Compensation to have the locks changed since R still has keys to the apartment. She does not have anyone able to stay with her however her mom and sister have both offered for her to stay with them. She is keeping her phone charged at all times and keeping a copy of the TPO on her. She has provided her daughter's daycare with a copy of the TPO as well as her work. We discussed temporarily changing her route to work and home since R knows her routine. P is aware that she may be receiving a call from the MPD gun unit to find out more information regarding R's firearm. P states R recently talked about acquiring a firearm but is not sure whether this has happened (she is unaware if he has a permit).

P works fulltime, she does not receive any public assistance. She is concerned about her housing since she cannot afford the rent and utilities on her own. She would like to file for child support as well as custody of their CIC. I spoke with P about emergency rent/utility assistance through the Anchor Fund. P is going to call CVC to have her locks changed, she will decide by tonight whether she will stay in the shared residence or go to her sister's house.

Thanks,
